

The Board of Commissioners met in regular session with Commissioner Kathy M Luthi, Commissioner James P Kay, and County Clerk Mary Arganbright.

Commissioner Luthi opened the meeting with the flag salute and prayer.

The official minutes of May 14, 2012, were approved and signed.

Added's and abatement's were approved.

Pat Murray, and Glennace Kirn, Central Kansas Mental Health, presented the 2013 budget for consideration.

John Cople, Highway Administrator, and Jo Mesecher, secretary, met with the board and discussed the landfill fees for Tescott City. At the request of Tescott City, the county will be putting their landfill fees on the tax statements, as they do for Culver City and the rural citizens. It was decided that Tescott City should notify their citizens of the rates that have been in place and then the county will put the correct amounts on the tax statements. The amount for free dump week was reported as 70.21/tons. John reported on what crews were doing. John presented his 2013 budgets for consideration.

Sandy Cline, Health/Aging Administrator, reported they completed the Senior Health Fair at both USD 239 and USD 240. They participated in a bicycle safety program in Bennington, May 2, and the safety day at the Minneapolis Fire Station. Sandy gave the board information on Vision Care Direct, a vision membership plan paid entirely by the employee through pre-tax payroll deduction. She thought it could be looked into later on.

Russell Thornton, Undersheriff, gave prisoner count of Sedgwick County 18, and Saline County 6.

Dennis Frain, Culver Fire District, presented 2013 budget for consideration.

Truette McQueen, County Appraiser, presented 2013 budget for consideration.
