

The Board of Commissioners met in regular session with Commissioner James P Kay, Commissioner Ray McGavran, Commissioner Kathy M Luthi, and County Clerk Mary Arganbright.

Commissioner Kay opened the meeting in the flag salute and prayer.

The official minutes of September 26, 2011, were approved and signed.

Payroll was approved.

Ken Yager, Minneapolis, stopped in and asked the commissioners if there are any grants available to help the old cemeteries in the county straighten up old stones. The commissioners said they would talk to Phil Aumick, Economic Development Director, to research it.

Kenny Baccus, Noxious Weed Administrator, came in and talked to the commissioners about his 2012 budget. He was looking at what he was going to be needing to purchase for chemicals for next year, and he also asked if he could use the road and bridge employee again for six months next year. The commissioners went over his 2012 budget with him.

John Copple, Highway Administrator, reported on what crews were doing. John gave the board a Solid Waste Exemption for A. Louise Pridey, Delphos. Commissioner McGavran moved to deny the exemption as it is a livable residence. Commissioner Luthi seconded. Motion carried. John gave the commissioners quotes for a new computer for his secretary. Computer Solutions, $1,586, includes installation, Dell's, $976, which doesn't include any installation or moving of files, or a monitor. The commissioners approved the purchase of Computer Solutions.

The commissioners approved the Application for License to Retail Cereal Malt Beverage for Roger Miller d/b/a Bohemian Hall, and the Notice to the Township Board.

Levi Livengood, Minneapolis, came in and asked permission to have a benefit band for a family member at the fairgrounds. The commissioners said for him to talk to Brian Kindall on the fair board.
