

The Board of Commissioners met in regular session with Commissioner James P Kay, Commissioner Kathy M Luthi, Commissioner Ray McGavran, and Mary Arganbright, County Clerk.

Commissioner Kay opened the meeting in the flag salute and prayer.

The official minutes of July 11, 2011, were approved and signed.

Commissioner McGavran moved to appoint Corey Kiser to the Minneapolis Fire Department. Commissioner Luthi seconded. Motion carried.

Mary Wilson, Minneapolis Messenger, met with the board and discussed the 2012 budget and what was going on in the county.

John Copple, Highway Administrator, reported on what crews were doing.

Jan Curtis, Morton Township, talked to the commissioners on the road she lives on. John Copple, Highway Administrator, joined the group. She explained the situation the last time the water was high. The county is going to be putting a tube in tomorrow on that road for someone else, so they will see how it works out after that.

Marie Ballou, Emergency Management Coordinator, discussed the safety program with the board. She has talked to KCAMP, and they are setting up a couple of classes. KWORCC will be meeting with Marie and fill her in on requirements to keep the discount on the insurance. Marie will be setting up a LEPC meeting also in the near future. She received the grant on the weather radio program. She has purchased 310 radio's, and 199 have gone out so far. She is waiting on more to come in, as all but 80 have been spoken for. She will be at the fair with them. Marie reported on training she has completed to date. Commissioner McGavran moved to appoint Marie to the North Central Regional Homeland Security Council. Commissioner Luthi seconded. Motion carried.

Keith Coleman, Sheriff, gave prisoner count of Sedgwick County 26, and Cloud County 1.
